To Whom It May Concern:

It has been a pleasure for me to know and work with Nolan Pastore over the course of his six years at Lake Middle High School. After having the chance to observe him in a variety of roles and situations, he has proven several times over that he is truly an outstanding student as well as an exceptional young man.

Nolan Pastore is that rare student who demonstrates an exemplary work ethic and an intense desire to excel. As a student in our GenYes Information Technology program, Nolan chose to take on challenging expectations while also taking additional honors and advanced placement courses, using this opportunity to obtain a well-rounded educational experience while further enhancing the learning experiences of his peers. He is most definitely a person who displays an enthusiasm for learning and seeks out situations where he can apply what he has been taught. When glancing at his accomplishments through his early involvement in the Scholastic News Press, his attendance at a Democratic presidential debate with press credentials from CNN, and his active participation in our athletic, choir, and drama programs, Nolan has clearly made an effort to fuel his interests and prepare himself for whatever might lie ahead in his academic, social, and career endeavors.

It is safe to say that Nolan Pastore is a student who has had a lasting impact on our school throughout the past four years through his involvement in choir concerts and school musicals, but he has also made a difference as the Secretary of our National Honor Society, as a member of our tennis and bowling teams, and through the countless other activities he has supported and acts of service that he has performed by choice rather than by demand. He is that unique person who demonstrates character and integrity at all times and in all situations, and he never fails to treat each person he meets with the utmost respect and a genuine kindness that is too often lacking in today's society.

Nolan Pastore is everything we would want to see in every student who walks our halls, and far exceeds what we have come to expect from a person of any age. It is with great enthusiasm that I give him my highest recommendation.

Sincerely,
